“Undercover Parenting in the Cyber Age: Expect, Inspect, and Protect”

Basic Computer Skills and a “Hands-On” Safety Class

Monday, November 15, 2010

6:30 – 8:00 PM

Tolland Middle School

Trooper Samantha McCord, a detective with the Connecticut State Police Computer Crimes and Electronic Evidence Laboratory, will present a class titled “Undercover Parent: Parenting in the Cyber Age.” This will be a hands-on computer class held in the Tolland Middle School Computer Lab. Participants will see a live demonstration of Internet exploitation online, learn the basic workings of online social networks (i.e., FaceBook, Yahoo) and the pitfalls and concerns for kids using the networks (cyberbullying, exploitation, sexting, etc). Additionally, participants will use a computer to understand the basics of Internet safety and how to use the computer as a tool for proactive parenting.

Space is limited and no students/minors are allowed. Space is limited, so please respond as quickly as possible to reserve your seat.

Please return the form below no later than November 10, 2010.

I plan on attending the workshop: Undercover Parenting in the Cyber Age: Expect, Inspect, and Protect” on Monday, November 15, 2010, from 6:30 – 8:00 p.m. I understand that due to the nature of the program, no students/minors are allowed.
